

ESLY DORANTES
IP Litigation Lawyer
edorantes@dumont.com.mx

Esly joined Dumont in 2016 as a lawyer in the IP Litigation Department. Her practice is focused on strategic protection, defense, and exercise of Intellectual Property rights, including legal opinions concerning trademarks, patents and copyrights.

As an attorney in the IP Litigation Department, Esly is responsible for litigation matters, including proceedings before the Mexican Patent and Trademark Office (IMPI), and appeals before the Federal Administrative Courts and Federal Circuit Courts.

She provides consulting services regarding the opposition trademark procedure to our clients. She counsels them on IP contracts as well as uniform dispute resolution procedures related to domain names.

Esly has published articles in renowned magazines including World Intellectual Property Review.

Languages: Spanish and English.

Published Articles:

"No more use for non-use claims"