Juan Carlos has worked with Dumont since 2014 in the IP litigation Department specializing in Intellectual Property Law.

Juan Carlos' professional practice focuses on counseling, negotiating and prosecuting Industrial Property disputes (invalidation, cancelation and infringement actions) before the Mexican Patent and Trademark Office (IMPI), as well as in the respective appeal proceedings before the courts of law. He is also experienced in protection of copyright, such as registration, prosecuting disputes, and appeals.

Additionally, he provides consulting services to our clients regarding opposition procedures, advising and drafting licenses and assignment, as well as uniform dispute resolution proceedings related to domain names.

As an attorney in the IP Litigation Department, Juan Carlos is responsible for prosecution, monitoring, and review of legal actions, appeals, or any disputes that the firm handles before IMPI or other courts of law.

Juan Carlos has published articles in renowned IP magazines including World Intellectual Property Review.
