

HARUMI WAKIDA
Trademarks Department
nwakida@dumont.com.mx

Harumi has been with Dumont since March 2017. She started in the firm as an Intellectual Property lawyer and is currently part of the trademarks department.

Harumi's professional practice focuses on protection of industrial property rights for domestic and foreign trademarks, chiefly Latin American trademarks (applications, objections, renewals, oppositions), and trademarks registered through the Madrid System, as well as availability trademark searches in Mexico, analysis of provisional refusals/objections, and responses to office actions before the Mexican Patent and Trademark Office (IMPI).

Languages: Japanese, Spanish and English.
